

Application for Assignment of WURD(AM), Philadelphia, PA
Mega Communications of Philadelphia Licensee, L.L.C.
FCC Form 314, Assignor Section II, Item 6
Exhibit 7

ADVERSE FINDINGS

The following information concerning an adjudication over seven years ago is again reported with respect to an equity holder in Activated Communications Limited Partnership (“Activated”), the 49 percent voting member of the ultimate parent entity of the above-referenced licensee, Mega Communications Holdings, L.L.C. (“Mega Holdings”). This matter has been reported to the Commission in prior renewal, assignment, transfer and license applications, all of which have been granted, including in a recent application for the pro forma transfer of control of the above-referenced station license (FCC File No. BTC-20001005ABK).

As previously explained to the Commission, Activated is controlled by its sole general partner, Cellular Dynamics, Inc. (“CDI”), which is in turn controlled by George L. Lindemann and his wife, Frayda B. Lindemann. Three family trusts, for the benefit of the Lindemanns’ three children, hold equity interests in CDI and in Activated itself as limited partners. George Lindemann, Jr. is the beneficiary of one of these trusts, and one of three trustees for each of the other two family trusts that are for the benefit of his brother and sister. Thus, George Lindemann, Jr. may technically be considered a “party” to this application.

On September 21, 1995, George Lindemann, Jr. was convicted of three counts of wire fraud in a proceeding before the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Illinois, Eastern Division, U.S. v. Ward, Lindemann and Heliac. This conviction was reported to the Commission in the application for renewal of KSFY(FM), Roswell, NM (FCC File No. BRH-970602FW), because the same three family trusts held attributable interests in the former licensee of KSFY. On December 14, 1998, the Commission granted the station’s renewal application. Subsequently, this conviction was reported to the Commission in a number of assignment, transfer and license applications, all of which have been granted (e.g., FCC File Nos. BL-20020528ABN; BL-20020220ACV; BL-20020122ABY; BALH-20000411ABZ; BTCH-20001005ABJ).

In addition to these recent grants by the Commission, it should be noted that George Lindemann, Jr. is not an officer, manager or member in his own right in Mega Holdings, Activated, or CDI, and has no involvement in the affairs of those entities or the operations of the above-referenced station. Moreover, George Lindemann, Jr.’s conviction was in no way related to broadcasting. George Lindemann, Jr.’s status as a “party” is due only to the fact of Activated’s investment in Mega Holdings, among a variety of other investments.
