² Capitalized terms used herein but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed to such terms in the Motion.

payment of prepetition amounts owed to the Brokers; and upon consideration of the Motion and all pleadings related thereto, including the Bigelow Affidavit; and the Court finding that (a) the Court has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334, (b) this matter is a core proceeding within the meaning of 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2), and (c) notice of the Motion was due and proper under the circumstances; and it appearing that the relief requested in the Motion is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates and creditors; and after due deliberation and good and sufficient cause appearing therefor, it is hereby:

ORDERED, that the Motion shall be, and it hereby is, granted subject to the terms of this Order; and it is further

ORDERED, that the Debtors are authorized, but not obligated, to continue to operate in the ordinary course of business and to pay, setoff or recoup prepetition claims owed to the Brokers in the ordinary course of the Debtors' business; provided, however, that the Debtors shall not pay in the aggregate an amount in excess of $10,230,000; provided, further, however, that without further order of the Court no payment to any individual Employee Sales Representative shall exceed $10,950 as set forth in 11 U.S.C. §§ 507(a)(4) and (a)(5), after excluding the following categories (i) health care programs, long-term disability, and workers compensation, and (ii) vacation time that is actually taken by the Employee Sales Representative by receiving continued pay during vacation leave rather than through any lump sum cash out of accrued vacation time, and vacation time that is required to be cashed out under applicable state law; and it is further

ORDERED, that the Court will consider authorization of payment of amounts in excess of that provided for in the immediately preceding paragraph at a hearing scheduled for January 5, 200⁹ at 1:30 [p.m] (EST) with objections due by December 29, 2008 at 4:00 [p.m] (EST); and it is further

ORDERED, that all applicable banks and other financial institutions are hereby authorized to receive, process, honor, and pay any and all checks and transfer requests evidencing amounts paid by the Debtors under this Order whether presented prior to or after the Petition Date. Such banks and financial institutions are authorized to the extent the Debtors have good funds standing to their credit with such bank or other financial institution to rely on the representations of the Debtors as to which checks are issued or authorized to be paid pursuant to this Order without any duty of further inquiry and without liability for following the Debtors' instructions; and it is further

ORDERED, that the Debtors shall provide to the statutory committee of unsecured creditors and the Office of the United States Trustee reasonable and timely access to information sufficient to enable such parties to monitor payments made, obligations satisfied and other actions taken pursuant to this Order; and it is further

ORDERED, that notwithstanding the relief granted herein and any actions taken hereunder, nothing contained herein shall constitute, nor is intended to constitute, the assumption or adoption of any contract or agreement under 11 U.S.C. § 365; and it is further

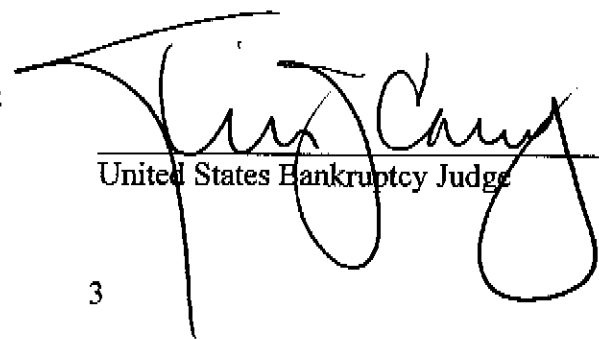

ORDERED, that the terms and conditions of this Order shall be immediately effective and enforceable upon its entry; and it is further

ORDERED, that the Debtors are authorized and empowered to take all actions necessary to implement the relief granted in this Order; and it is further ORDERED, that this Court shall retain jurisdiction with respect to all matters arising from or related to the implementation of this Order.
