

Exhibit 17
Multiple Ownership

The proposed transfers of control of Corpus Christi Broadcasting Co., Inc. (“CCB”) and K-Six Television, Inc. (“K-Six”) to the Kennedy Living Trust (the “Trust”) comply with the Commission’s multiple ownership rules. Section 73.3555(c), the radio-television cross ownership rule, allows an entity to directly or indirectly own a commercial television station and one commercial radio station located in the same market. K-SIX(AM) and KZTV(TV) are both in the same market. Thus, the common control of one radio and one television station is permitted.

The common ownership of KZTV(TV) and KVTV(TV) does not trigger the duopoly rule, § 73.3555(b), because the two stations are licensed to two different designated market areas.

The Trust has no other ownership interests in any other media outlets. Thus, the proposed transfers of control comply with the Commission’s multiple ownership rules.
