

Section 307(b) Analysis: Preferential Allotment and Community Showing Station
WLGE(FM), Channel 295A, Baileys Harbor, Wisconsin

In the instant minor modification application (the "Application"), the applicant, Michael J. Mesic ("Mesic"), seeks to modify the license of Station WLGE(FM), Ephraim, Wisconsin ("WLGE" or the "Station"), to change the Station's community of license, from Ephraim, WI. (population 353) to Baileys Harbor, WI. (population 1003). Mesic also seeks to change WLGE's transmitter site location. Under this proposal, WLGE would continue to operate on FM Channel 295A.

Together with the Section 307(b) Engineering Exhibit attached hereto as Exhibit A ("Engineering Exhibit"), this Preferential Allotment and Community Showing demonstrates that the Station's proposed move to Baileys Harbor, Wisconsin complies with Section 307(b) of the Communications Act, which charges the Commission with the responsibility to "provide a fair, efficient and equitable distribution of radio service..." 47 U.S.C. § 307(b).

In Revision of Procedures Governing Amendments to FM Table of Allotments and Changes of Community of License in the Radio Broadcast Services, 21 FCC Rcd 14212 (2006) (the "FM Allotment R&O"), the Commission stated that, under its revised procedures for allotting and assigning channels, classes and communities of license for AM and FM broadcast stations, applicants seeking community of license changes must provide "a narrative showing that the proposed community of license change represents a net service benefit under the Section 307(b) priorities and policies [the Commission has] used since 1982." FM Allotment R&O at 14218 (citing Revision of FM Assignment Policies and Procedures, 90 FCC 2d 88 (1982) ("FM Assignment Policies"). The Commission also stated that applicants must demonstrate that the proposed community "constitutes a community suitable for allotment purposes." Id.

As set forth below, relocating the Station's community of license to Baileys Harbor as proposed in the Application will result in a preferential arrangement of allotments under the Commission's allotment priorities. Moreover, Baileys Harbor, Wisconsin qualifies as a community for allotment purposes.

I. The Proposed Community of License Change will Result in a Preferential Arrangement of Allotments The Commission's FM priorities, as set forth in the FM Assignment Policies, are as follows: (1) first aural service; (2) second aural service; (3) first local service; and (4) other public interest matters. See FM Assignment Policies at 91-92. The Commission gives co-equal weight to priorities (2) and (3). See id. The Station operation proposed in the Application will bring a first local service to Baileys Harbor – Priority Three among the Commission's allotment priorities. At the same time, the proposed change will not deprive Ephraim of an existing local aural transmission service. Mesic holds a construction permit for WLGE and has not yet built the Station. See File No. BNPH-20070426ABD. As such, WLGE does not constitute an existing local service to Ephraim. The Commission's prohibition on removing the sole local transmission service from a community is therefore not implicated here.

See Farmington and Gallup, New Mexico, 11 FCC Rcd 2357, 2361 (1996), aff'd

Farmington and Gallup, New Mexico, 14 FCC Rcd 18983 (1999).

Further, as demonstrated in the attached Exhibits, the proposed operation will increase WLGE's 60 dBu population coverage by 72 persons from 6,475 to 6,547, with an area of overlap with its current Construction Permit of 1,076.1 sq. km. and 5,622 persons, though it will decrease the area covered by the Station by 480.1 sq. km. (See Engineering Exhibit A). This signal loss area (801.1 sq. km), consisting of the loss population (853 persons), will continue to receive at least six signals. Approximately 790 sq. km will continue to receive at least seven signals. Mesic notes that consideration of all outstanding licenses, construction permits and applications, the number of persons receiving less than two services is zero. See id. The de minimis number of people, living in rural areas distant from any organized community, who would not receive first or second service, are insufficient to warrant denial of the instant request, especially considering the gains in service that the Applicant is proposing. See Farmington and Gallup, New Mexico, supra, 11 FCC Rcd at 2360.

Based on the provision of first local service to Baileys Harbor and the corresponding net population gain, the proposed change will result in a preferential arrangement of allotments under the Commission's allotment priorities.

II. Baileys Harbor, Wisconsin Qualifies as a Community for Allotment Purposes

Baileys Harbor, Wisconsin possesses the community attributes required by the Commission's community allotment standards. To begin with, as reported in the US Census Bureau, Census 2000, Baileys Harbor is a Town ("Town") with a population of 1003 persons. (Exhibit B). Commission precedent clearly establishes that designation of an area as a Town raises the presumption that the area constitutes a community for allotment purposes. See FM Assignment Policies, 90 FCC 2d at 101.

Next, the Google Earth map and the street map of Baileys Harbor, (Exhibit C), show the community's geographic boundaries – 25 miles east of Marinette, WI, and 19 miles northeast of Sturgeon Bay WI. As this map demonstrates, Baileys Harbor stands separate and apart as a distinct community.

Baileys Harbor has its own Post Office and Zip Code (54202) along with its own bank and fire department. (Exhibit D)

As further evidenced by the fact sheets attached hereto (Exhibit E), Baileys Harbor is vibrant residential community. Baileys Harbor is on the shore of Lake Michigan and is ½ mile from Kangaroo Lake, the largest inland lake in Door County. Baileys Harbor contains neighborhood parks, including Anclam Park, Baileys Harbor Ridges State Park, as well as the Baileys Harbor Cemetery.

Baileys Harbor is also home to a number of businesses, including various hotels (Exhibit F), shops (Exhibit G), restaurants (Exhibit H) and other miscellaneous businesses (Exhibit I). A Public Library is located in Baileys Harbor and the Baileys Harbor Town Marina is also located in Baileys Harbor. (Exhibit J). Finally, Baileys Harbor has its own community churches. (Exhibit K). These churches, businesses, organizations and institutions evidence Baileys Harbor's community status.

The Commission has previously found substantially less community indicia sufficient to establish community status for allotment purposes. See, e.g., Cambridge, Newark, St. Michaels, and Stockton, Maryland and Chincoteague, Virginia, 20 FCC Rcd 19099 (MB 2005), aff'd, 21 FCC Rcd 10699 (MB 2006); Marathon and Mertzon, Texas, 18 FCC Rcd 23986 (MB 2003); Encino, Texas, 18 FCC Rcd 23984 (MB 2003); Semora,

North Carolina, 5 FCC Rcd 934 (1990).

As demonstrated above, the change in WLGE's community of license from Ephraim, Wisconsin to Baileys Harbor, Wisconsin will result in a preferential arrangement of allotments. Further, Baileys Harbor, Wisconsin is a bona fide community for community allotment purposes. The community of license change proposed in the Application is thus consistent with the Communications Act and the Commission's allotment policies, and should therefore be granted.

Michael J. Mesic
Loss/Gain Study for
WLGE, Baileys Harbor (Ephraim) WI

This exhibit was prepared to demonstrate the population changes between WLGE's current Construction Permit (BNPH-20070426ABD) and WLGE's pending application. Block level Census data from the year 2000 data was utilized to determine population results.

WLGE's 60 dBu service contour for the current Construction Permit encompasses 6,475 persons and covers 1,877.2 sq. km

WLGE's 60 dBu service contour for the proposed operation will encompass 6,547 persons and cover 1,399.7 sq. km

The area of common coverage is 1,076.1 sq. km. and 5,622 persons

The proposed operation will increase WLGE's 60 dBu population coverage by 72 persons from 6,475 to 6,547 and decrease the area covered by the Station by 477.5 sq. km

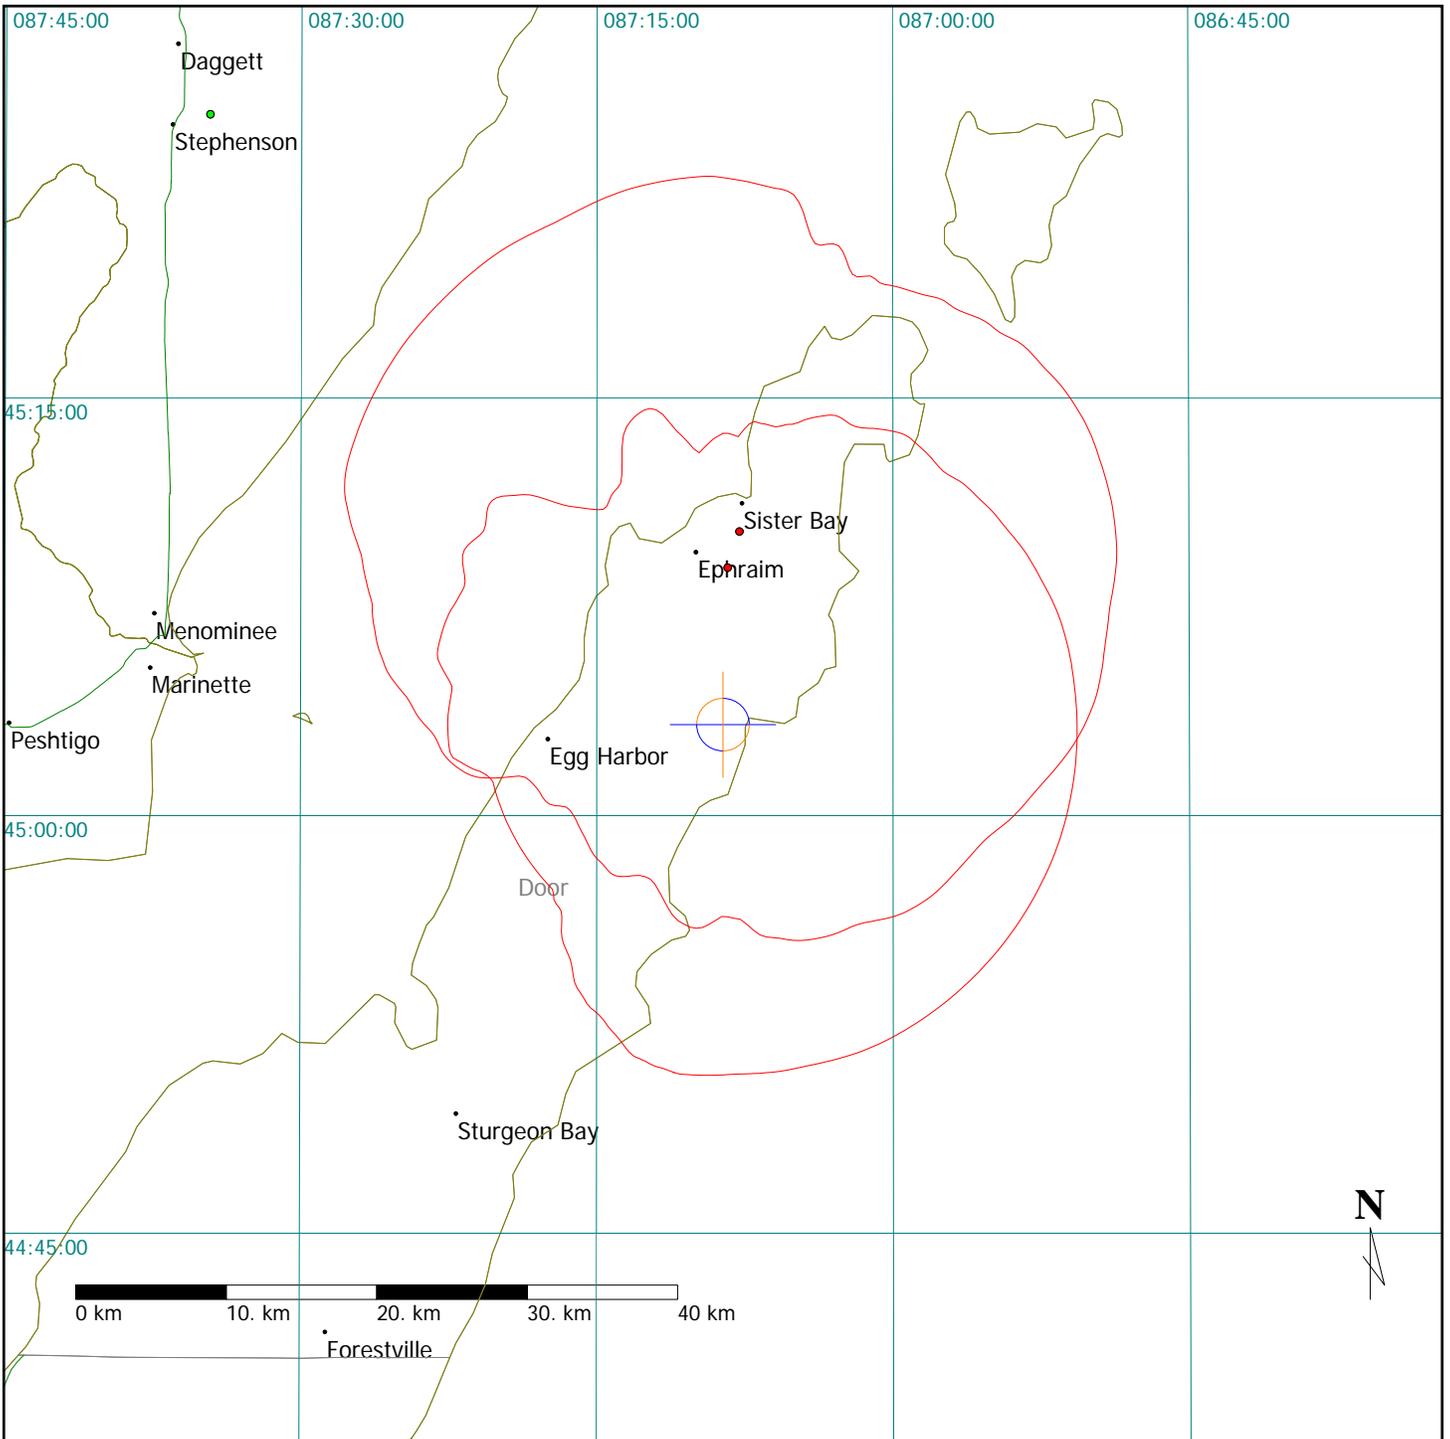

This signal loss area (801.1 sq. km), consisting of the loss population (853 persons), will continue to receive at least six signals.

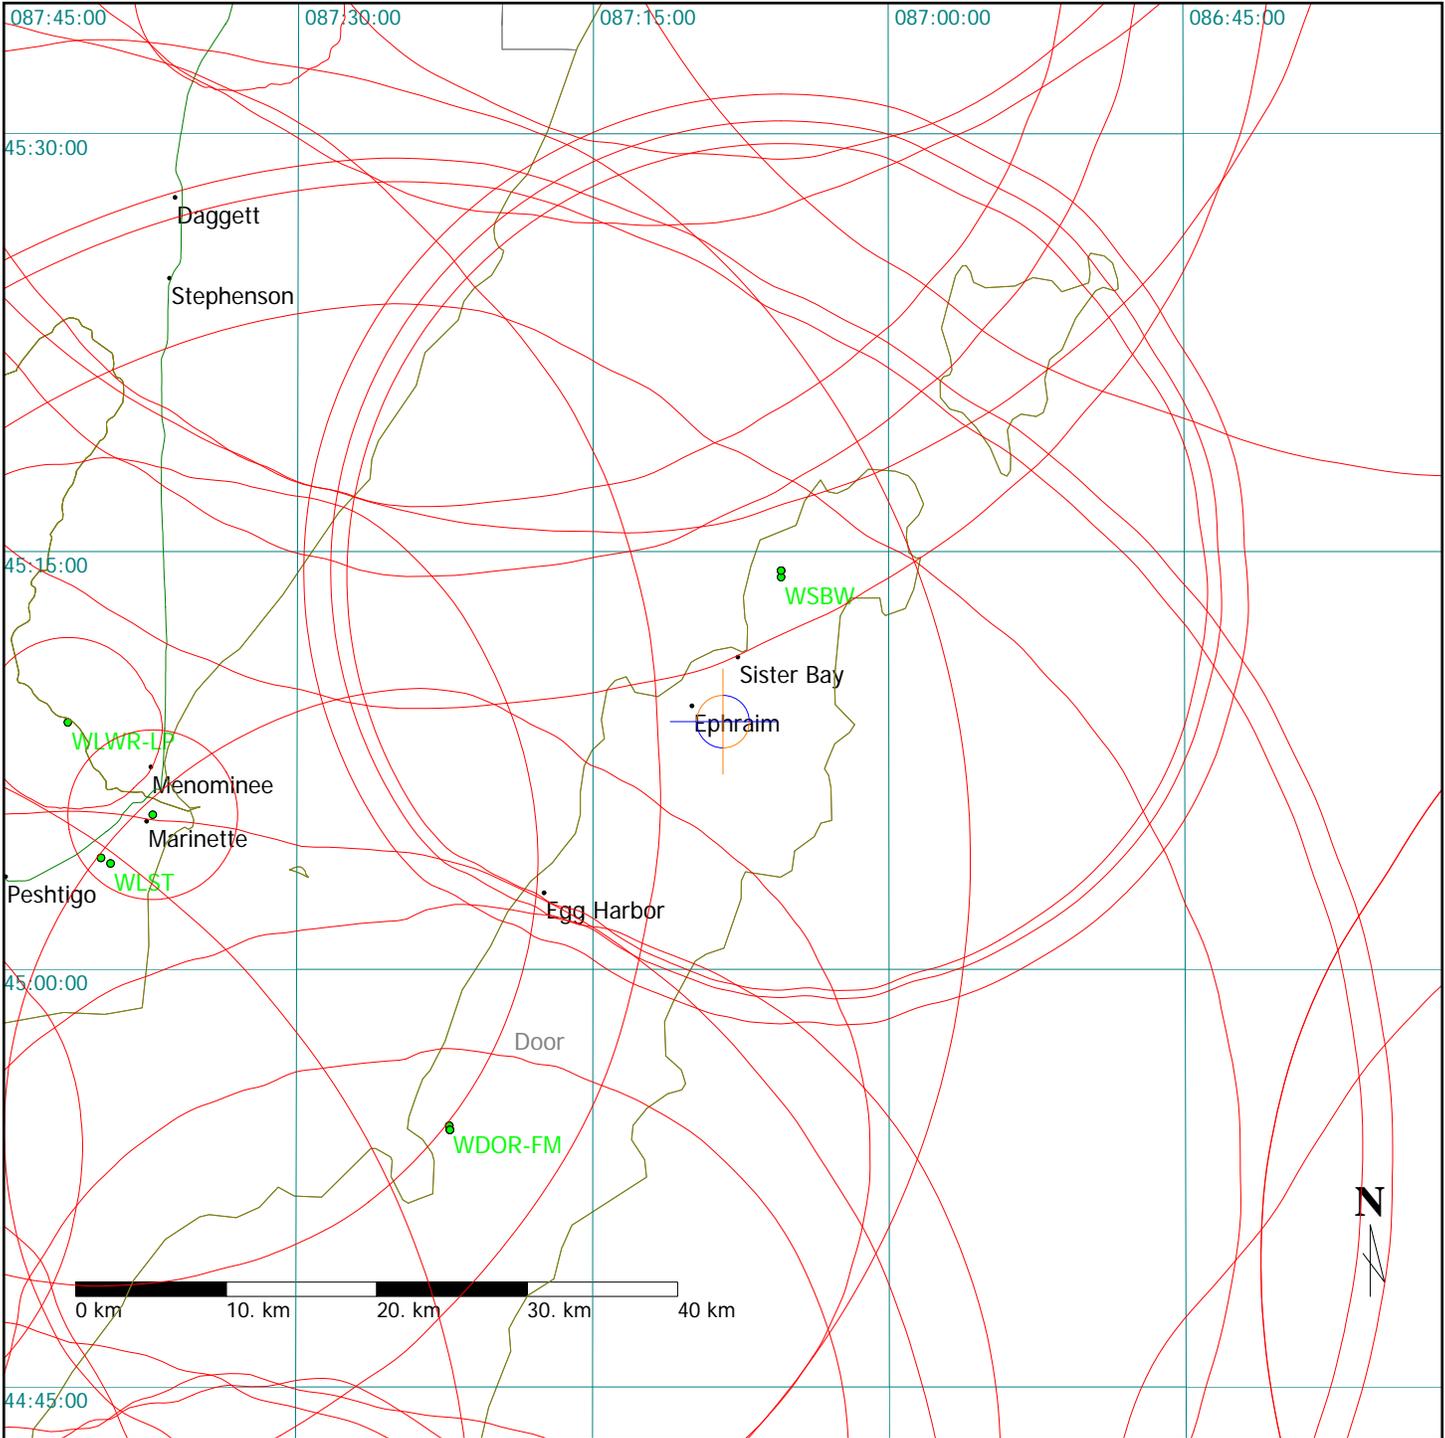

Approximately 790 sq. km will continue to receive at least seven signals

If all outstanding licenses, construction permits and applications are considered, the loss of WLGE would result in no one receiving less than two services.

Festivals and Events

Lighthouse Tour and Craft Show 5/19/2007

The Craft show will be accompanied by the Lighthouse Tours. There will be a food booth, either inside or outside, depending on the weather.

4th of July Celebration 7/4/2007

Baileys Harbor has had the ultimate drawing card for the 4th of July for over a century. A full day of fun and excitement for all includes the parade, arts and crafts, live entertainment, children's games and, of course, the spectacular fireworks display.

Autumnfest 9/15/2007 at Baileys Harbor Town Hall

Autumnfest will be a jam-packed one day event in the Baileys Harbor town center. It will feature a craft show, food, a bake sale, raffle, live music by River City Six, and a souvenir booth. The festivities begin at 9AM.

Brown Trout Tournament 4/19/2008 -4/21/2008

The 20th Annual Brown Trout Tournament will be held April 19-21, 2008 in the waters surrounding beautiful Door County Wisconsin. In 2007, prizes were awarded for the top 60 heaviest fish with the grand prize valued at over $1500.

Settlers

History | Settlers | Zahn's Birdhouse

The Settlers

Settlers came in from Norway, Sweden, Finland, Denmark, Poland, England, Germany, Scotland and Ireland. As they came to Baileys Harbor they cleared more land and farming took a prominent place in the economic picture. Steamers took the place of schooners on the lake and by 1901 there were few members of the "winged fleet" to be seen.

In 1857 Mr. A.K. Sea built lime kilns. The remains of which may still be seen at the bluff behind the old Baileys Harbor School and Toft's point and many other spots around the Baileys Harbor Township. Filled with raw limestone it was subject to terrific heat for three days and three nights during which time it changed from limestone to lime. This lime was used as plaster and chinking to fill in the cracks in the log homes being built at the time.

In 1870 Kreston Toft a Dane came to Baileys Harbor and made his home with the Thomas Panter family. Where he met and later married Juley Anne Panter . He worked at the stone quarry in mud bay until the early 1890's when the Sturgeon Bay Canal was dredged making easier for ships to load in Sturgeon Bay. The quarries at Garrett Bay and Mud Bay ceased operations.

In 1866 Mr. Ward sold his store and pier to Mr. T. Severn. Who in 1871 sold it to Mr. Frederick Wohltman whom was born in Germany. He successfully carried on operations for many years. (This pier can still be seen at Anclam park on the south end of Baileys Harbor). He gave work of chopping wood to Polish and German immigrants who had failed to find employment in Chicago. Many of these people later bought land and opened an area west of Baileys Harbor. Known as the Polish settlement. Here we had Theodore Zak, Valentina Kita, Cashmere Smith, Martin Schram, Peter Zdrojewski, Ignatz Charnetski, John Raza, A. Brunetski, Thomas Wesa, Fred Ray, Frank Gray, and Andrew Smith who were farmers.

English Pioneers

Formed a large group some came in the 1860's

Some of them were:

Moses Kilgore - pioneer storekeeper, pier builder, and shipper of wood products, active in local, county and state government.

Roger Eatough - hotel owner, blacksmith, druggist, chairman of the Door County board for many years.

William Higgins - pioneer, pier builder, and shipper of wood products.

William Jackson - farmer, lighthouse keeper and justice of the peace, liked his "Dugan's Dew

Hugh Spring - store keeper, justice of the peace

Joseph Ridings - farmer, had wonderful white whiskers

Thomas Mc Cullough - hotel owner, served on town and county boards

Thomas Panter - farmer, lost 100 cords of wood in a severe fire in 1868

William Toseland - farmer lost a field of winter wheat in same fire.

Jesse Brown - lighthouse keeper at Cana Island. His boys were daring sailors and would travel in all sorts of weather to get mail and groceries in Baileys Harbor

German Pioneers

Adem Hendricks - pioneer, fisherman, hotel owner, served on town and county boards

Frederick Wohltman - dock owner, store keeper, and shipper. Gave work to polish settlers.

Ernest Bues - fisherman, farmer, Made good

Scandinavian Pioneers

When the Scandinavian's left their homes in Sweden, Norway, Denmark, and Finland to immigrate to America, they brought with them their skills, minds, perseverance and devotion.

Most Scandinavians immigrated to America during a hundred year span between 1825 and 1925. Their reasons for coming were mostly due to poor economic and living conditions and they were filled with hopes of a better future. They were not so concerned with wealth and power, though some achieved both. They asked only for a decent living and a better future for their children.

The social heritage of the Scandinavians was both religious and secular. Most came with a religious tradition that was shaped by the Lutheran State Church of their homeland. These immigrants banded together to form Lutheran congregations and they called Scandinavian pastors to serve in them.

The church held a high place in the life of the Scandinavian country folk. To them it served a dual purpose of social and religious center. Life on the farm or at sea interspersed with friendly gossip, story telling, and the occasional swapping of horses were an important part of the cultural side of daily life shared at these gathering places.

Life on the sea as fishermen or sailors on merchant ships was a trade familiar to Scandinavians. It is not surprising that Reinhard (Hegland) Hickey devoted part of his life to working at the Baileys Harbor Life Saving Station. Lewis Hickey (son of Martin) made a life career of working as a Life Saving officer and coastguardsmen

Some of the Scandinavian pioneers were:

Gottfried Nelson - Swedish pioneer, fisherman and farmer, caught a Lake trout weighing 65 lbs. On hook and line through the ice near Washington Island

Thoma Toft - Danish pioneer who operated stone quarry and lime kilns in Mud bay

Andrew Jacobson - from Finland, farmer,

money fishing

John Anclam - dock owner, store keeper, postmaster, shipper of wood products

Otis Griffin - farmer, dock worker
 John Stephan - justice of the peace, farmer
 George Harbers - constable, dock worker
 Herman Oldenburg - shingle mill worker
 John Oldenburg - farmer, dock worker
 Jacob Apple - farmer
 Conrad Faust - farmer
 Fred Ahrens - farmer
 William Reimer - farmer
 George Meyer - farmer
 Fred Leonhardt - farmer
 E. Schermer - farmer
 Karl Peil - farmer
 Janisch - farmer
 Fred Wirth - farmer
 Jacobi - farmer
 Henry Seiler - carpenter, skilled workman

August Zahn - blacksmith, ironworker, served on town board
 Adolph Jorns - farmer, tavern keeper
 Fred Ehrke - mill worker
 Louis Prueter - farmer, saw mill and flour mill owner and operator
 Mat Hruska - dockworker
 Albert Schultz - insurance and farmer
 Franz and Albert Hoefert - farmers
 Anton Woerfel - mill owner

Captain Bailey

It was in 1848 that a Captain Justice Bailey sought shelter from a severe storm on Lake Michigan and took refuge in the harbor in which today bears his name. He was in charge of one of a dozen vessels owned by a Mr. Alanson Sweet, a industrialist in Milwaukee, who had extensive businesses in shipping stone and lumber to Detroit.

We have a letter from Mrs. Byron Treat of Buchanan, Michigan. Written in 1953 to Mrs. Donald Boynton of Bjorklunden. Mrs. Treat at age 88 was writing to tell how an uncle of hers, Capt. Justice Bailey convinced Mrs. Treat's grandparents of Racine, Wisconsin to be his guests for the round trip to Detroit. He told them how beautiful the fall colors during October would be and explained he would be dropping off cargo in Detroit and then returning to Recine for another kind of lumber, and so they accompanied him. But the ships encounter a violent unexpected storm that sought him to seek shelter in a little cove or inlet as she called it, and remained there over night. The next morning after the storm had passed Capt. Bailey came ashore to look around the area and found nature lime stone to be mined in a area that is now behind the Lutheran church. Knowing that his employer, Alanson Sweet was in the business of selling stone to commercial building contractors, Capt. Bailey took samples of the stone with him. He also noted the abundance of timber and prepared a map of the harbor to take back to Mr. Sweet Along with specimens of Pine, Maple and Beech. Upon his return he gave a glowing report to Alan Sweet who had visions of great business possibilities in the new area.

This lighthouse was in use until 1870. When it was discontinued to upgrade the navigation lights to a Range light system. The lighthouse was abandoned and remained unused until the U.S. Government decided to sell it. A deed dated June 24 1926 shows that it was sold to a W. Mahler for the highest bid of $500. The lighthouse keepers house had rotted and was rebuild by William Tishler Sr. The property remains privately owned.

There are only 3 lighthouses in the United States with the birdcage dome on top. There's one in the state of Michigan, one in New York and ours in Baileys Harbor. Mrs. Mary Ann Johnson the founder and president of the Baileys Harbor Historic Society have nomination the birdcage lighthouse to the National Register of Historic Sites.

In 1851 Mr. Sweet convinced the State Legislature to grant county status to the peninsula and to make Baileys Harbor the first county seat under the name Gibraltar. However, no official business was transacted and in 1858 the name Baileys Harbor was again given to the area through the citizens' preference and Sturgeon Bay became the county seat.

The next year 1849 Mr. Sweet sent crew of men to build a pier and a sawmill at the harbor and to open a stone quarry. Before the end of another year had passed, there were six log cabins in the tiny settlement and a road had been cut through the woods westwards to the Green Bay shoreline. This road is known as County trunk F today. Mr. Sweet sent his scribe, Mr. Solomon Beery to take charge of the work crews in 1849. During the winter of 1849 and 1850 Mr. Beerys crew cut and milled 2500 cords of wood for shipment.

The first lighthouse

In 1851 Mr. Sweet a very aggressive businessman, induced the United States government to build a lighthouse under his supervision, on the east side of the harbor.

In the Milwaukee Daily Sentinel of August 19, 1852 I quote: "Lighthouses on Lake Michigan: We learn from Capt. Miller the efficient superintendent of lights on the North Western Lakes. That our fellow citizen, Alanson Sweet has nearly completed the light at Baileys Harbor and it will be ready for use in a week or two."

In the meantime Mr. Alanson Sweet through financial difficulties severed his relations with the activities of Baileys Harbor. The lumber business continued to thrive in the late 1860's through to the 1890's.

Also a sawmill owned by Mr. J.W. Lowel was built on the shore near Higgin's pier. After a few years the mill moved away and Mr. J.T. Wright Built the Peninsula House nearby. The steam ship Ludington of the Goodrich Steamship line called once a week to unload passengers and freight. The Peninsula House built in 1871 was located not far from the Higgin's pier. In the Door County Advocate of 1871 Mr. Wrights advertisement read: "Peninsula House ... at the steam boat landing, pleasant place, table filled & customers treated with expectation of coming back with Faithful attention given to the comforts and wants of the traveling public. Stage couch service to Sturgeon Bay."

The National Hotel owned by Thomas Mc Cullough opened in 1870's In 1853 Mr. S.B.Ward came to Baileys Harbor and bought a house belonging to Mr. W. L. Brooks on the site where he built the Baileys Harbor House. Later owned by Mr. Adam Hendrick in 1871

Baileys Harbor Fishing Report

Mention Door County and great fishing comes to mind. That is for those anglers who have been there, or live there and have reeled in many a nice catch. With over 250 miles of shoreline—along with numerous bays, harbors, and islands—Door County offers a concentration of superb fishing unmatched anywhere on the Great Lakes. Trout and salmon attract a majority of the attention, but spectacular action for walleye, perch, small mouth, and big northern pike is available as well. When the focus is on brown trout, one Door County destination stands out: Baileys Harbor. No one is more knowledgeable on the subject of Baileys Harbor fishing than the charter boat captains. They keep their outfitted craft in the water mid-April through October. If you follow their methods and lure choices, you should be able to bring in some nice catches.

Sorry no current fishing reports are available.

Town Marina

Baileys Harbor was born from the need of a natural "Port in a Storm" for Captain Justice Bailey in the year 1848. Since that day, the need for a modern day "Harbor of Refuge" along Lake Michigan's untamed waters has been realized. It is out of that need that the year 2000 brought about the construction of our fine new facility, the Baileys Harbor Town Marina.

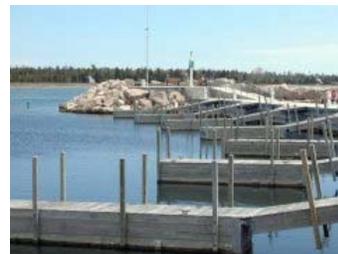

Whether a pleasure boater on a day sail, the serious yachtsman, angler, or just the opportunity to sit shore side and enjoy the sensational vistas surrounding our facility, our staff and community are here to serve your needs.

Our Marina fulfills the needs of the yachting and sport fishing public as a full service facility with gas and diesel refueling, current weather reports; seasonal or transient slip rentals, a computerized advanced reservations system, and acceptance of major credit cards. If you have the need to launch your boat there are four-lit launch ramps and short and long term trailer parking available in the vicinity of the Marina.

Boaters can appreciate the convenience of restrooms, shower, and a laundry located adjacent to the Marina in the Dock Master headquarters. A state of the art fish cleaning station is provided for anglers catching the "big one", and fishing licenses are sold at the office registration desk.

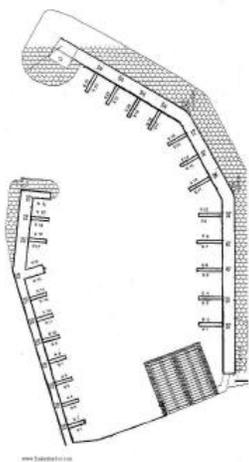

Watch the sun climb over the sapphire waters of Lake Michigan, upward into the violet-orange skyline until daylight peeps out to greet you a "Good Morning". Should you wish to unwind, park benches located on the pier, observation platform and in the greenspace areas in and around the Marina property beckon you. A seat on the outer break wall allows visitors to enjoy the end of an eventful day watching the spectacular sunsets over the limestone bluffs and old growth forests that surround our downtown business district.

During your stay, you will never be more than minutes away from shopping, dining, a cool beverage, a movie, or many of the outdoor recreational amenities our community offers.

Baileys Harbor

Baileys Harbor in Door County is known for its natural areas, parks, golfing, lodging on sandy beaches, historic lighthouses hugging rocky shorelines, and boating on lakes teeming with fish.

For romantic Door County get-aways or family fun, Baileys Harbor is the place to be for a five-star time in the Midwest. The arts, galleries, festivals, shopping, fine wines and restaurants await you in this historic lakeshore community.

Baileys Harbor was the first established village on the Door Peninsula. Capt. Justice Bailey, seeking refuge from a ferocious storm on Lake Michigan, came ashore in our sheltered harbor in 1848 .

The village was originally established as a lumbering community, but later immigrants settled and farmed the surrounding area. While many of the area's dairy farms and our town have undergone changes over the years, our heritage still stands as proof today of the conviction of our early ancestors.

In October 1848, a cargo ship loaded with lumber and carrying several passengers left Racine, bound for Detroit. That evening the ship, commanded by Capt. Justin Bailey, encountered a violent storm. Buffeted by high winds and heavy rain, the ship pitched and rolled in the angry Lake Michigan waters.

Concerned for his passengers and cargo, Bailey kept watch for a place in which to ride out the storm. Late that night he found a quiet cove where he could drop anchor until the storm passed and his journey could be resumed.

That act of nature assured Capt. Justin Bailey a measure of immortality; the village that sprung up there the following year was called Baileys Harbor.

Located on the shore of Lake Michigan, the area has thousands of acres of wetlands and wilderness, much of it preserved as part of Björklunden, Toft's Point and the Mud Lake Wildlife Area.

Birding and hiking are at their very best at the Ridges Sanctuary at Baileys Harbor. The Ridges, a privately held wildflower preserve, includes the Baileys Harbor Rangelight and Lighthouse, and a beautiful sand beach that's open to the public.

The Baileys Harbor business district is situated on the lake and includes many fine shops, galleries and restaurants. Charter fishing boats leave here daily carrying anglers in search of a memorable day on Lake Michigan.

Baileys Harbor

small town feel with lots to do
By Donna Marie Pocius

Special to DoorCountyNavigator.com

When you want to experience a small town feeling and enjoy easy access to Door County's historical and natural attractions, plan a visit to Baileys Harbor.

Situated on the Lake Michigan side of the Door Peninsula, Baileys Harbor welcomes tourists at its downtown bed and breakfasts inns and hotels, restaurants and shops. Just a few miles away are the historical Cana Island Lighthouse and Boynton Chapel. And outdoor enthusiasts find Baileys Harbor the perfect place for a biking, hiking, windsurfing and charter fishing.

Shops Along the Lakefront

"Someone once compared us to a Norman Rockwell painting. This is a village people enjoy," said Bryan Nelson, innkeeper, Blacksmith Inn, Baileys Harbor and member of the Baileys Harbor Community Association. "They get a small town feeling here they won't get in a lot of places. It is a real strong community. A real working town. Everyone is pretty together in this little town."

Baileys Harbor Marina

The public marina is an example of an attraction that pulls Baileys Harbor together. Opened in the spring of 2000, the marina offers four lighted ramps, full marina service, showers and other amenities. Located on Hwy. 57, it is considered the town's focal point, especially on the Fourth of July when bands play there and thousands gather to pay tribute to America's independence.

"Well, for one thing, it is part of the town square. It has an observation deck—it is the heart of town, and it feels like that," Nelson said.

Just across from the marina is the town hall at 2392 Cty. Rd. F. The building houses Baileys Harbor's Visitor Information Center, administrative offices and the Door County Library (Baileys Harbor branch). Staffed during the summer, the visitor center is a place to pick up maps, brochures and tips on what to do in and around Baileys Harbor.

"I advise them to leave their car here and walk to the Catholic Church (St Mary of the Lake); you can take a leisurely stroll and cover all the shops and everything here in the downtown," said Ron Holden, information center staff.

And when tourists want to venture out of downtown Baileys Harbor, Holden recommends historical sites such as the 135-year-old Cana Island Lighthouse, Boynton Chapel and the Range Lights.

Appreciate history

The most visited site in Baileys Harbor is the Cana Island Lighthouse, an active navigational aid, located only six miles out of town. The grounds are maintained by the Door County Maritime Museum and the Lighthouse Preservation Society under a lease with the U.S. Coast Guard.

Find the lighthouse by driving north on Hwy. 57 to Cty. Rd. Q. Turn right on Q, and proceed to Cana Island Dr. Turn right, park on the mainland and walk the 500 foot rock walkway to the island.

Cana Island Lighthouse

Cana Island's light tower and keeper's house were constructed of Cream City brick in 1869. After storms weathered the tower to the point of being irreparable, it was encased in steel plates in 1902 with the area between the old brick tower and the plates filled with concrete. Since then, regular whitewashing gives Cana Island Lighthouse its distinctive look, according to the Maritime Museum.

"There are very few working lighthouses on the Great Lakes," said Brain Kelsey, executive director, Door County Maritime Museum. "People know about shopping and nature, but it also is good to get a historical perspective of Door County."

Continue a historical whirlwind tour of Baileys Harbor by heading south on Hwy. 57 until you reach Boynton Lane. Take this gravel road east through the grounds of Bjorklunden.

Deep in the woods on this 405-acre estate, where Lawrence University, Appleton, offers educational programs, stands the 15th-century Norwegian style Boynton Chapel. Tours of the chapel, led by articulate university students, run regularly from 1 p.m. through 4 p.m. Mondays and Wednesdays mid-June through end of August. Cost is $3.

You'll hear the story of the late Winifred and Donald Boynton, who handcrafted the chapel from 1930 through 1947 on their estate. They adorned the intimate chapel, which seats about 20, with their art—41 frescoes and ornately carved furnishings and wood trim.

"The chapel is all about love, peace and faith," said Marge Meyers Graham of Northfield, Ill. and the Boyntons' granddaughter.

Visitors may also appreciate history during a visit to the Range Lights structures that stand at their original locations in the Ridges Sanctuary, 8288 Cty. Rd. Q, Baileys Harbor. Built in 1869, these lights guided ships safely into the shallow waters of Baileys Harbor.

Baileys Harbor: hike it, bike it, surf it

And while visiting the Range Lights, spend time hiking around the Ridges Sanctuary, a 1,300-acre nonprofit nature preserve offering five miles of trails.

Follow hiking trails that cross the crests of old sand dunes. Between the dunes are shallow wetlands called swales.

The Ridges Development Director Linda Shealey advises visitors to keep their eyes peeled for wildflowers, especially 25 native orchids blooming at various times of the spring and summer. Also growing here are more than a dozen plants listed on the Wisconsin Threatened and Endangered Species List.

Trails are open from sunrise to sunset year-round. A donation is requested.

Baileys Harbor lakeside location also makes it a destination for charter fishing and other water sports including windsurfing. "People enjoy swimming here, and we have a lot of windsurfing here. Windsurfers say it is one of the better areas," said Jane Pluff, who helps visitors during the fall and winter at the Baileys Harbor Town Hall office.

Bikers also find Baileys Harbor's location a convenient base for Peninsula rides.

Bikers ride north on Hwy. 57 to Cty. Rd. Q and proceed to Woodcrest and Old Stage Rd, networking with trails throughout the County.

"Or they take Cty. Rd. F (west) over to Fish Creek and go to Peninsula State Park for a day. We really appeal to nature lovers, and a lot see us as a biking destination. They say this is the place to base biking from in Door County," Nelson said.

Always a party

And Baileys Harbor is also the place to chill at a festival. The town's signature event is the July 4th Celebration. Most activities take place on the town hall lawn across the street from the marina on one day only. After the parade at 10 a.m., walk through the outdoor art show, eat brats or try Mexican food benefiting the Hispanic Resource Center.

At the art show, find Peninsula artists along with people throughout the country displaying furniture, paintings, pottery, fiber art, jewelry, soap and more. Also, shops along Hwy. 57 are open, selling antiques, clothing, furniture, ice cream and moccasins.

Baileys Harbor pays tribute to America's independence with fireworks over Lake Michigan beginning at dusk.

"July fourth is the one day of the year when we are not so quiet," Nelson said. "Autumn Fest (held the third Saturday of September) doesn't have the press of people July fourth has."

Autumn Fest includes an antique car show, more arts and crafts, entertainment and food. "Cars are brought in by owners from all over and parked by the Fire Station," Holden said. "Fall is just beautiful here."

Baileys Harbor in a day

But if you only have a day to spend in Baileys Harbor, include these activities on your itinerary:

- Head to the Visitor Information Center, 2392 Cty. Rd. F. Pick up some brochures, maps, and then walk the shops on and along Hwy. 57--the downtown area.
- Return to your car at the center and take a drive north out of town to the Ridges Sanctuary. Hike the area and see the Range Lights buildings
- Visit nearby Cana Island Lighthouse, located on an island actually accessible by foot--just six miles out of town.
- Return to downtown for dinner in one of Baileys Harbor many fine restaurants—many overlook the lake.
- Enjoy a performance of Door Shakespeare on the grounds of Bjorklunden and stroll by the Boynton Chapel during intermission.
