II. Description of Proposed Changes In Interest As a Result of the Transfer.

As described, Cox Enterprises, Inc. ("CEI") is a privately-held company that is controlled by Barbara Cox Anthony and Anne Cox Chambers through their voting stock interests in three trusts. Barbara Cox Anthony and Anne Cox Chambers have controlled Cox Enterprises since 1974. By this transaction, Cox Enterprises, Inc. proposes a restructuring that reclassifies the outstanding stock and reallocates the voting stock to one of the three trusts.

Barbara Cox Anthony and Anne Cox Chambers now control a majority of the vote of CEI through their control of the three trusts and, after consummation, they will continue to control a majority of the vote of CEI through their control of one of the trusts.

Cox Enterprises, Inc. currently has one class of common voting stock (Class A common). By this transaction, Cox Enterprises, Inc. would issue two new classes of common stock that would replace the Class A common stock. These new classes of stock will be Class B common voting stock and Class C common non-voting stock. After the proposed restructuring, the voting rights would be allocated as illustrated below. The trustees of Dayton Cox Trust-A would continue to have voting rights in the stock, and thus Barbara Cox Anthony and Anne Cox Chambers would continue to be the controlling shareholders of Cox Enterprises Inc. No new shareholders, officers, or trustees are being introduced as a result of this transaction.

Please see the charts included in Exhibit 2 for a detailed description of the votes and equity interests before and after the transaction.

As described, after the proposed transaction, Barbara Cox Anthony and Anne Cox Chambers, who have been in control of Cox Enterprises, Inc. since 1974, will continue to be in control of Cox Enterprises, Inc.
