NOTICE OF APPARENT LIABILITY FOR FORFEITURE

Adopted: April 11, 2016

Released: April 11, 2016

By the Chief, Video Division, Media Bureau:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. In this Notice of Apparent Liability for Forfeiture (NAL) issued pursuant to Section 503(b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended (Act), and Section 1.80 of the Commission's Rules (Rules),<sup>1</sup> we find that NBC Telemundo License LLC (Licensee), licensee of Station KVEA(TV), Corona, California (Station), apparently willfully and/or repeatedly violated Section 73.3526(e)(11)(iii)<sup>2</sup> of the Rules by failing to publicize the existence and location of the Station's Children's Television Programming Reports. Based upon our review of the facts and circumstances before us, we conclude that the Licensee is apparently liable for a monetary forfeiture in the amount of eight thousand dollars ($8,000).

II. BACKGROUND:

2. Section 73.3526 of the Rules requires each commercial broadcast licensee to maintain a public inspection file containing specific types of information related to station operations.<sup>3</sup> As set forth in subsection 73.3526(e)(11)(iii), each commercial television licensee is required to prepare and place in its public inspection file a Children's Television Programming Report (FCC Form 398) for each calendar quarter reflecting, inter alia, the efforts that it made during that quarter to serve the educational and informational needs of children. That subsection also requires licensees to file the reports with the Commission and to publicize the existence and location of the reports.<sup>4</sup>

3. On August 1, 2014, the Licensee filed its license renewal application (FCC Form 303-S) for the Station.<sup>5</sup> In response to Section IV, Question 10 of the Application, the Licensee stated that announcements concerning the existence and location of Children's Television Programming Reports were had not been broadcast throughout the entire preceding license term (i.e., for a period of eight years). The announcements began airing again in July 2014 and a process has been implanted to ensure the announcements occur in the future.<sup>6</sup>

III. DISCUSSION

4. The Licensee apparently failed to publicize the existence and location of the Station's Children's Television Programming Reports for eight years. This constitutes apparent willful and/or repeated violations of Section 73.3526(e)(11)(iii) of the Rules.<sup>7</sup> The Licensee may have since taken corrective actions to prevent subsequent violations of the children's television rules and policies; however, the Commission has found that the fact that a broadcast station may have implemented a plan to prevent future violations does not relieve the licensee of liability for prior violations.<sup>8</sup>

5. This NAL is issued pursuant to Section 503(b)(1)(B) of the Act. Under that provision, any person who is determined by the Commission to have "willfully and/or repeatedly failed to comply with any provision of the Act or any rule, regulation, or order issued by the Commission...shall be liable to the United States for a forfeiture penalty."<sup>9</sup> Section 312(f)(1) of the Act defines willful as "the conscious and deliberate commission or omission of [any] act, irrespective of any intent to violate" the law.<sup>10</sup> The legislative history to Section 312(f)(1) of the Act clarifies that this definition of willful applies to both Sections 312 and 503(b) of the Act,<sup>11</sup> and the Commission has so interpreted the term in the Section 503(b) context.<sup>12</sup> Section 312(f)(2) of the Act provides that "[t]he term 'repeated,' when used with reference to the commission or omission of any act, means the commission or omission of such act more than once or, if such commission or omission is continuous, for more than one day."<sup>13</sup>

6. The Commission's Forfeiture Policy Statement and Section 1.80(b) of the Rules establish a base forfeiture amount of $8,000 for violations of the Commission's children's requirements.<sup>14</sup> In determining the appropriate forfeiture amount, we may adjust the base amount upward or downward by considering the factors enumerated in Section 503(b)(2)(E) of the Act, including "the nature, circumstances, extent and gravity of the violation, and, with respect to the violator, the degree of culpability, any history of prior offenses, ability to pay, and such other matters as justice may require."<sup>15</sup> Based on our review of the facts and circumstances, including the duration of the violation, we find that the Licensee is apparently liable for a forfeiture in the amount of $8,000 for its failure to publicize the existence and location of the Station's Children's Television Programming Reports for eight (8) years. Accordingly, the Licensee is apparently liable for a forfeiture in the amount of $8,000 for its apparent willful and/or repeated violations of Section 73.3526(e)(11)(iii) of the Rules.<sup>16</sup>
