² Wilks Broadcast Manager LLC is intended to provide a vehicle by which principal executive officers of Wilks Broadcast Group LLC and managers of the various station clusters would be able to participate in “upside” value through (i) “promote” interests granted in connection with the performance of services and (ii) “investment” interests issued in exchange for capital contributions. The percentage participation of this entity, as of the date hereof in Wilks Broadcast Group Holdings LLC and in the future (after giving effect to the exchange of member interests referred to in note 1 above) in Wilks Broadcast Group II Holdings LLC, as well as the identity and participation levels of the members of this LLC, in each case attributable to promote interests, will be determined in the future, but could under certain circumstances be in the aggregate up to a maximum of 25% (subject to time-based vesting, possible forfeiture and performance criteria), after return to the investors in Wilks Broadcast Group II Holdings LLC (that is, after giving effect to such exchange of member interests) of all invested capital plus a preferred return thereon (corresponding to Class A Member LLC interests in Wilks Broadcast Group II Holdings LLC).

³ The persons granted or to be granted membership interests in Wilks Broadcast Manager LLC have made or will be expected to make capital contributions to this entity in exchange for “investment” interests therein. Such contributions in turn have been or will be invested as capital contributions by Wilks Broadcast Manager LLC in Wilks Broadcast Group Holdings LLC, or, in connection with the Closing, in Wilks Broadcast Group II Holdings LLC, in respect of Class A Member LLC interest therein. The aggregate percentage interest in Wilks Broadcast Group II Holdings LLC to be represented by such Class A Member LLC interest to be held by Wilks Broadcast Manager LLC will be determined and adjusted from time to time in the future, but is not expected to exceed 1.0% (based on expected capital contributions not expected to exceed approximately $700,000 in the aggregate), and would proportionately reduce the aggregate percentage interest of other LLC members of Wilks Broadcast Group II Holdings LLC holding Class A Member LLC interests therein.

The persons granted or to be granted membership interests in Wilks Broadcast Manager LLC have made or will be expected to make capital contributions to this entity in exchange for “investment” interests therein. Such contributions in turn have been or will be invested as capital contributions by Wilks Broadcast Manager LLC in Wilks Broadcast Group Holdings LLC, or, in connection with the Closing, in Wilks Broadcast Group II Holdings LLC, in respect of Class A Member LLC interests therein. The aggregate percentage interest in Wilks Broadcast Group II Holdings LLC to be represented by such Class A Member LLC interest to be held by Wilks Broadcast Manager LLC will be determined and adjusted from time to time in the future, but is not expected to exceed 1.0% (based on expected capital contributions not expected to exceed approximately $700,000 in the aggregate), and would proportionately reduce the aggregate percentage interest of other LLC members of Wilks Broadcast Group II Holdings LLC holding Class A Member LLC interests therein.
