

Your Public Radio Corporation is the 100% holding company and sole member of WYPR License Holding, LLC. Your Public Radio Corporation is a non profit, non-stock, corporation controlled by its self-perpetuating board of directors. The board is the sole locus of control over the holding company, and possesses ultimate authority over the organization. By extension, the board also controls the subsidiary licensee, WYPR License Holding, LLC. The board has increased its composite membership and replaced some members, and is presently as described in the arrangement shown below.

The transfer of control from the holding company's composite old board of directors to its new board of directors is the type of pro forma transfer of control to be processed under the modified short form application procedure. Transfers of control of certain licensed non-stock entities 4 FCC Rcd 3403 (1989).
