

Jackson Radio Company, LLC, is a New Hampshire Limited Liability Company, created through a merger of mutually exclusive applicants for a new FM station to serve Jackson, New Hampshire on Channel 258A. New Hampshire Public Radio ("NHPR"), a New Hampshire non-profit corporation, is the sole managing member of Jackson Radio Company, LLC. NHPR was solely responsible for constructing and managing the proposed station, for hiring any station employees and making all programming decisions. NHPR had the right to acquire the interests of all non-managing members of Jackson Radio Company, LLC, upon completion of construction of the station.

Except for its interest in the instant application, Jackson Radio Company, LLC has no interest in any broadcast station.

New Hampshire Public Radio is the licensee of noncommercial educational FM Stations WEVO, Concord, New Hampshire (Facility ID 48438); WEVH, Hanover, New Hampshire (Facility ID 48439); WEVN, Keene, New Hampshire (Facility ID 48440); and WEVC, Gorham, New Hampshire (Facility ID 24235). Pursuant to Section 73.3555(f), noncommercial educational FM stations are not considered attributable interests.

The non-managing members of Jackson Radio, LLC, are: Blue Dolphin Communications, Inc. (and its successor in interest American Media Services, LLC), North Country Radio, Inc. (and its successor in interest, Mt. Washington Radio), and Cache Valley Communications, Inc. The interests of the non-managing members in Jackson Radio, LLC are exempt from attribution, pursuant to Section 73.3555, Note 2(g)(1).
