

LICENSEE'S EXHIBIT 9

Adverse Findings

On October 29, 2004, the Media Bureau admonished WDCW Broadcasting, Inc. (formerly WBDC Broadcasting, Inc.), licensee of WDCW(TV), Washington, DC (formerly WBDC-TV) ("WDCW"), for violating the Commission's rules limiting the amount of commercial matter that may be aired during children's programming. See Letter from Barbara A. Kreisman, Chief, Video Division, Media Bureau, Federal Communications Commission, to WBDC Broadcasting, Inc., DA 04-3455 (released Oct. 29, 2004). WDCW Broadcasting, Inc. is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Tribune Broadcasting Company, which in turn is wholly-owned by Tribune Company.

In its application for renewal of license, WDCW stated that during the license term, there were two instances where the station exceeded the limits on commercial matter during children's programming. After review, the Commission issued its admonishment and took no further action. The WDCW license renewal application remains pending.
