

Wolfhouse Radio Group, Inc.
FCC Form 314
Exhibit 7

On September 12, 1994, Hector Villalobos, the sole owner, officer and director of Wolfhouse Radio Group, Inc. (“Wolfhouse”), entered a guilty plea to a single violation of 26 U.S.C. § 7206(1), acknowledging that he subscribed to an income tax return in 1987 in which his income was under-reported. Pursuant to a plea agreement, Mr. Villalobos was sentenced to, and completed, 12 months supervised release in a halfway house and was fined $10,000, well below the maximum penalties provided for this conduct. These matters have been previously considered by the Commission in its approval of the applications for Wolfhouse Radio Group, Inc. to acquire the broadcast stations owned by it, including Station KEBV (FCC File Nos. BALH-20010507AAQ et seq.), as well as in connection with the Commission’s approval of applications for renewal of licenses and applications for assignment of licenses of other stations held by TGR Broadcasting, Inc. and/or Tigre Radio Corporation, of which Mr. Villalobos was a principal (see, e.g., FCC File Nos. BR-19970724WC and BRH-19970724WD; BAL-941220EA and BAPH-941220EB; BAL-19980731GI and BALH-19980731GH). The conduct involved happened more than 10 years ago. Consistent with the Commission’s prior rulings and its policy to limit the consideration of even conduct constituting “a flagrant disregard of the Commission’s regulations and policies” to that occurring within the past ten years, Mr. Villalobos’s conviction has not disqualified him as a Commission licensee, and does not disqualify him as an assignor. Policy Regarding Character Qualifications in Broadcast Licensing, 102 FCC 2d 1179, 1229 (1986), modified, 5 FCC Rcd 3252 (1990), recon. granted in part, 6 FCC Rcd 3448 (1991), modified in part, 7 FCC Rcd 6564 (1992).
