

STATEMENT OF EDUCATIONAL OBJECTIVES

This exhibit responds to Section II, Item 4(b) and describes Road Map Ministries' objectives and how the proposed station will be used to advance an educational program that will further those objectives.

Road Map Ministries certifies that its governing document permit the applicant to advance an educational program and that there is no provision in any of those documents that would restrict the applicant from advancing an educational program or complying with any Commission rule, policy or provision of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

Road Map Ministries' educational objectives will include (1) providing instruction in moral, ethical and traditional values, (2) teaching adults and young people to develop productive lifestyles, (3) providing the opportunity for and promoting informative discussion and debate regarding contemporary social issues, (4) providing possible solutions to community problems such as teen pregnancy, drug and alcohol abuse, crime and the splintering of the traditional family unit, (5) fostering fiscal and economic responsibility and (6) promoting citizenship, patriotism and a successful family life.

To accomplish its objectives, Road Map Ministries proposes to provide many regular and special feature programs, produced both locally and nationally.

Road Map Ministries will offer a wide variety of educational programming designed to meet the needs and interests of residents within its community of license, including educational programs on current events, and programs examining economic, social and religious issues. It will feature inspirational music, news and other cultural programming. It is one of Road Map Ministries' goals to educate its audience with respect to both teachings of the Bible as well as broader topics of contemporary significance, ranging from family issues to opportunities and problems facing children and young adults.

Its station will produce and air regular programs as well as public service announcements about the many agencies and non-profit organizations within its coverage area, and beyond, which provide services to people in need as well as projects which seek to improve and maintain the quality of life. Road Map Ministries will maintain a community events calendar, which will focus on upcoming events in the local community. It will also broadcast school and educational institution updates.

Some of the station's programming will be devoted to religious instruction. Other programming will promote an understanding and appreciation for both contemporary and traditional religious music.

The applicant will be extensively involved with its local community. It will operate its station as a community station and become a valuable educational source serving the public interest.
