

Constructed Facility

Due to transmission line length, the transmitter output power as constructed turns out to be 1.26 kW which is slightly different from the transmitter output power of 1 kW authorized in the construction permit. However, there is no change in the maximum ERP of the station.