

Response to Question 2. d. (2) of Schedule 381

The licensee does not know what structural standard was used when the most recent structural analysis was prepared. If it subsequently learns what standard was used, it advise the Commission.