

Antenna Support Structure - Response to d(1) and d(2)

The antenna support structure was built in 2009, per the applicable engineering codes of Mississippi. The tower has been periodically maintained, as required, but no structural analysis has been performed after the construction.