

Potential Impact on Canadian Stations

The facility proposed in this application is further away from the potentially affected Canadian stations than the previously authorized construction permit. In addition, the ERP is unchanged and the HAAT is slightly lower than that currently authorized. Therefore, any impact on Canadian stations would be less than that caused by the current authorization.

A plot showing a comparison of the service contours of the proposed facility versus the currently authorized facility has also been attached to this application.