

STA Statement

The FCC was previously notified that station WEAU has been operating at 75% power since May 12, 2016 because of an equipment failure at the transmitter. The station is awaiting repair of its high voltage power supply and therefore requests authority to continue operating at reduced power. WEAU will resume full power operations as soon as all repairs are completed.