

November 28, 2017

This proposal results in predicted reception of 0.62% interference, which is just beyond the 0.5% rounding threshold. The applicant acknowledges this predicted interference and has determined that it is greatly outweighed by the overall proposed improvement in service.

By:  _____
Peter A. Frid
President and CEO