

CHANNEL SHARING AGREEMENT

The applicant wishes to inform the Commission that both the sharer and the sharee, in this channel sharing arrangement, are stations that have common ownership.

The applicant has been informally advised by the Commission's staff that in instances of common ownership, between sharer and sharee, the existence of a formal, written channel sharing agreement is not required.

Consequently, the applicant has not prepared a channel sharing agreement for these two commonly owned stations.