

This 398 Children's Television Programming Report has been amended to show children's educational and informational broadcast programming efforts for substations KSTC and MeTV. KSTC is a television station commonly owned with, and serving in the same market as, full power satellite stations KSAX and KRWF. KSTC timely reported all of its children's television programming for its primary and MeTV channels on its FCC Forms 398.