

During this quarter we have been, and curently are exploring tower options with the transmision site landlord that may permit the existing tower to be modified in such a manner so as to be able to support the new Ch 5 antenna needed for the repacked facilities.