

Displacement

We received a Commencement of Operations letter from T-Mobile informing us that we need to be moved off the existing channel and relocate to a new channel. This translator is part of a system and has been engineered to assist other tv channels so translator sites can be chained to preserve coverage to other translator facilities.

We are requesting to operate on channel 24 based on application file number 0000049129 on file.