

Amendment Exhibit

This amendment filed on May 8, 2018, is to provide the required antenna structure registration (“ASR”) for the proposed taller roof mounted pole to support the antenna, and also corrects some other parameters or details identified during the FAA determination process (including a minor correction to the geographic coordinates and site elevation).