

PMCC Powell Meredith Communications Company is owner of 3 Fm translators that were granted in Jan 2016 but were already placed in another companies bankruptcy estate that is NOT affiliated with PMCC as applications.

The permits along with 11 other permits and licenses are inside the Federal bankruptcy court estate of Community Translator Network(CTN) which is now in liquidation Chapter 7 under Michael Thomson.

The three permits are- Gulfport, MS 142760, South Padre, TX 142717 and Wickenburg AZ 143311

The permits are technically still in the PMCC name and account and are in tolling due to lawsuits against them plus 5 other permits that were in the PMCC name in Washington Co UT, Bankruptcy Court in Salt Lake City UT, 10th District Court Jill Parish (dismissed) and in Sam Cummins Federal Court in Northern Texas. Plus 5 additional lawsuits against former CTN filed by Michael Thomson in 4/2018 also in Salt Lake City Bankruptcy court.

PMCC is owned by Amy Meredith and was awarded this by a State of Texas judge in Dallas County in 2008, this ruling has been under dispute by a 3rd party with the audio division of the FCC, the decree was upheld as valid in Federal Court in Salt Lake City UT and an appeal was filed in 10th district which was dismissed.
