New Mexico PBS Long Term Recruitment Initiatives
No.	Description of Initiative	Scope of Employment Unit's Participation
1	Establishment of an internship program designed to assist members of the community to acquire skills needed for broadcast employment. The establishment of an internship program was developed by New Mexico PBS by recruiting local area college students as part-time employees. As student employees, they acquire skills in broadcasting by receiving specific training in various station operations. In many instances following graduation, students that have remained as employees during their academic years become either a mainstay of New Mexico PBS or plan on moving to other broadcasting organizations.	New Mexico PBS exposes students to the broadcasting environment and provides real-life on-the-job training to potential students in their field. New Mexico PBS had 28 students from June 1, 2017 through May 31, 2018.
2	Establishment of training programs designed to enable station personnel to acquire skills that could qualify them for higher level positions. According to UNM University Business Policies and Procedures Manual on Career Development (Policy #3260.3), station personnel are encouraged to participate in some form of career development which consist of continuous occupational and/or professional education and training to maintain expertise, and/or participate in the career ladder program to provide for planned progression within the same position.	New Mexico PBS personnel are capable of advancing in their careers. Personnel within different departments at New Mexico PBS attend classes at UNM and CNM. Also key personnel attend seminars and workshops to enhance their current positions. 1 employee was reclassified by way of promotion and 1 employee was reclassified to provide opportunity to expand their knowledge base.
3	Sponsorship of at least two events in the community designed to inform and educate members of the Public as to employment opportunities in broadcasting. Mentoring programs are done through the Albuquerque Public School system conducted each year. KNME-TV provides positions for up to four high school students to work and train in television. During summer seasons, interested students from local area high schools are recruited and given the opportunity of acquiring skills in television broadcasting.	Mr. William Pinnel, Public Relations Specialist, spoke at the following community forums to inform and educate the public with respect to public broadcasting in addition to job opportunities with our station: February 20, 2018 Rotary Club North Domingo Multigenerational Center 25 members  September 13, 2017 Kiwanis Egg & I Restaurant 18 members  September 13, 2017 Philanthropic Education Organization Debbie Butcher 35 members  October 24, 2017 Neighborhood at Rio Rancho 30 residents  Lincoln Middle School Career Fair Rio Rancho
4	Providing training to management level personnel on methods of ensuring equal employment opportunity and preventing discrimination. All employees are required to take annual training with respect to preventing discrimination and sexual harassment in the workplace per University policy #2720: Equal Opportunity, Non-discrimination, and affirmative action.	New Mexico PBS management is in compliance with university policies regarding equal opportunity.
