

Explanation for Suspension of Operations

The station experienced a fire this morning at its transmitter site. The station is currently silent and operations have been temporarily suspended. A temporary transmitter has been ordered and a request for an Engineering STA will be filed as soon as possible.