

Please note that approval of the San Francisco Planning Commission is required for construction of the post-auction facilities. As the timing of that agency's approval is unknowable, it may affect our ability to complete the project on time.