

NARRATIVE REGARDING SILENT STA

KCWV (Duluth, MN) has experienced technical issues with its broadcast exciter and, after consultation with its engineer, has determined that it must be replaced. Several related parts will also need to be upgraded. It is expected that the new equipment will be received and installed within the next six to eight weeks.