

Explanation for Amendment

The amendment changes the authorized signature on the form which was prematurely submitted. The authority granted to the Executive Director to sign FCC filings had expired with the change to a new interim President of the University licensee.

FCC counsel has been updated as a contact representative.