

Reason for Extension

Licensee was previously granted special temporary authority to commence operations on its post-auction channel 22 with interim facilities. This STA was necessitated by the station's tower being completely destroyed in Hurricane Maria. Licensee requests an extension of its STA while it works diligently to construct the new tower and build out its repack construction permit.