1	2/1/2017	Establishment of an intern program designed to assist members of the community	WBNG offers a paid internship program called Quinternships. The purpose behind the Quinternship Paid Internship Program is to offer students in the field of journalism, broadcasting, communications and related fields the opportunity to gain hands-on experience in broadcast television, radio, and digital information. Students who participate will gain a wide variety of practical experience and will receive an hourly wage. The company strives to offer this opportunity to a diverse group of Interns. Each Quintern is assigned a mentor and there is curriculum for each position. The station hosted three student internships during the Spring/Summer of 2017. One intern was a Broadcast and Digital Journalism/International Relations student at Syracuse University in Syracuse, NY. The second intern was a Political Science/Public Communications and Journalist student at Syracuse University. The third intern was a Broadcast and Digital Journalism student at Syracuse University in Syracuse, NY. Finally, WBNG also hosted an intern from the New York State Broadcasters Association intern program. The intern spent the summer working at WBNG, and then extended her internship under Quincy's regular intern program and worked throughout the fall and early winter.	1	News Director
