

Extraordinary Circumstances

The reason for this temporary operation is we are looking for a new site to expand our coverage and the current tower owner does not want to extend the lease on a month by month. So we are going to move to a temporary site until we can find our final location.

The public interest will be furthered once we get the new location and coverage established. The expected duration will be less than 6 months.