

The construction permit bears a condition requiring antenna impedance measurements on the KIFW(AM) antenna upon completion of the FM translator antenna installation.

Measurements performed after installation of the antenna find a resistance of 24 ohms, which is the same as was reported on the most recent KIFW license, BZ-20060809ALI. Therefore no additional filing by KIFW is necessary.