

Reduced Power Notification

On November 30, 2019, KCEN began operating with power reduced to 2Kw on its back up transmitter. The amplifier on the main transmitter has failed. The station is evaluating the equipment and anticipates resuming operations under the licensed parameters before the end of the year.

In the event additional time is required, we will request special temporary authority to continue operating with reduced power.