

Online Public Inspection File

The response to the online public inspection file question is hereby amended. After the renewal application was filed, station management discovered that information regarding March 2019 political advertising inadvertently was not uploaded to the public file. The information was uploaded on October 4, 2019. The licensee has taken corrective action in order to insure that all political advertising information is timely uploaded in the future.