Repack Activity Report

Spring 2017 – Negotiation and execution of revised credit agreement necessary for company to enter into master equipment vendor agreements

Spring 2017 – Negotiation and execution of Master Agreements with antenna and transmitter manufacturers for all company's stations, including station at issue in this filing

Spring, Summer, Fall 2017 – On-going tower studies and structural analysis of tower for new antennas and transmission line

June and July 2017 – Preparation and submission of FCC construction permit applications for all company's stations, including station at issue in this filing

June and July 2017 – Preparation and submission of FCC Form 399 ("Incentive Auction Relocation Reimbursement Fund System") for all company's stations, including station at issue in this filing

November and December 2017 – Discussions and planning sessions with antenna and transmitter manufacturers as well as with tower crew regarding scheduling, delivery, and installation of Repack equipment for all company's stations, including station at issue in this filing

January, February, March 2018 - Work on purchase orders for interim antenna, transmission line, and related components.

April, May, June 2018 – Purchase orders issued for repack transmitters and antenna equipment.

July, August, September 2018 – Continued work on schedules and deliveries with vendors, tower crew and American Tower.

October, November, December 2018 – Continued work on schedules and deliveries with vendors, tower crew and American Tower.

January, February, March 2019 - Work with American Tower on tower structural studies, tower mapping, and project management.

April, May, June 2019 – Additional work with American Tower on tower structural studies, tower mapping, and project management.

July, August, September 2019 – Continued work on schedules and deliveries with vendors, tower crew and American Tower.

October, November, December 2019 – Site visit with transmitter manufacturer to finalize final floor layout for new transmission equipment. Demolition and removal of legacy analog transmitter to make room for new repack transmitters.

January, February, March 2020 – Legacy analog transmitter and related components have been removed. New Primary and Aux transmitters have been installed. Tower work is now pending and no firm start date is scheduled due to COVID-19 issues related to tower crew availability.