Employment Discrimination Complaints

During the period covered by the filing, two discrimination complaints were filed against the licensee, as detailed below. Both matters were closed with no finding of discrimination by licensee.

On January 14, 2018, former employee Bertin Etienne filed a complaint with the Philadelphia district office of the EEOC alleging discrimination on the basis of race, national origin, and disability. (EEOC Charge No. 531-2018-00605). Licensee responded, denying the allegations. On July 22, 2018, the EEOC issued a dismissal and notice of right to sue. No suit was filed during the time allowed, and the licensee considers this matter closed.

On December 24, 2018, former employee Kyle Ayers filed a complaint with the Baltimore district office of the EEOC and the Maryland Commission on Civil Rights alleging discrimination on the basis of sex and disability and retaliation. (EEOC Charge No. 531-2019-00811). Licensee responded, denying the allegations. On September 4, 2019, the EEOC issued a dismissal and notice of right to sue. No suit was filed in the time allowed, and the licensee considers this matter closed.
