Form 350 – Exhibit #1

Legal Certifications

Townsquare Media Faribault License, LLC is the licensee of both the translator facility referenced herein and the parent AM station, KDHL Faribault, MN (Facility ID 54634). Construction of K250CD as authorized by the underlying construction permit, original file number BNPFT-20181102AAY as modified by MOD-0000117181, has been completed. The station is in satisfactory operating condition and ready for regular operation. K250CD is prepared to commence program tests with its new facility immediately upon filing of this instant application in accordance with Special Operating Condition #1 of the aforementioned construction permit. Licensee also hereby acknowledges and certifies compliance with Special Operating Condition #2.

With respect to Special Operating Condition #3, the K250CD antenna has been installed on a directional tower of parent station KDHL(AM). KDHL is in the process of modifying its directional antenna system as authorized by BP-20180702ABC and is currently operating non-directionally during construction pursuant to a Special Temporary Authority, BSTA-20200529AAA. The modifications underway to the KDHL directional antenna system are extensive and have been designed and scheduled to allow for the installation and incorporation of the K250CD antenna prior to the installation of the new KDHL phasing system and subsequent KDHL proof of performance. Therefore, any possible effects to the KDHL(AM) directional antenna system will be accounted for in the full proof of performance when it is completed and submitted with the KDHL license application at the conclusion of the project. As such, relief from Special Operating Condition #3 is respectfully requested until such time as it will be satisfied upon completion of the KDHL(AM) construction project.
