

Proposal does not have significant environmental impact (if any at all) because it is side-mounting mounting an antenna on an existing tower, and adding a transmitter inside an existing building. We have demonstrated RFR is well below guideline limit for public exposure, and as an auxiliary antenna, the facility is used rarely, when the main facility is not available for use.