

Purpose of Application

The purpose of the instant application is to correct the technical specifications for the proposed K224ER facility. Due to an oversight, the application which resulted in the recently granted construction permit 0000130361 omitted the horizontally-polarized component of the ERP on the form, although it was correctly included in the technical exhibit which remains attached. This application corrects that oversight,