

Certification of compliance in operations.

This application seeks to return KELE to its previous state of commercial operations. It was commercial from its inception until approx.. a year ago when a nonprofit, NCE broadcaster purchased the station. No technical changes have been made at all since it was commercial and it will be returned just as it was previously, operating within its legally licensed facilities.