

K05NA-D Withdrawal Exhibit

As the applicant was working on the construction of K05NA-D, it was discovered that the application would cause interference to KRCB that moved to channel 5 during the repack. Therefore, the extension is being withdrawn concurrently with an application for displacement to move to a displacement channel. The Commission has been reissuing permits that have been displaced because of the repacking of the TV band.