

Nature of Amendment

The amendment revises the description of the transaction and related exhibits, provides a certification relating to insulated members, changes the transferor and transferee parent entities within the form to refer to the exhibit listing the before and after interests, and provides answers to questions from FCC staff.