

Narrative Statement

Buck Owens Production Company, Inc. seeks to achieve broad and inclusive outreach in promoting employment at its radio stations and in the broadcast industry generally. Examples of the outreach efforts made by the stations include participation in area job fairs and career events at local educational institutions as well as involvement in a scholarship program sponsored by the Kern County Broadcasters Association.

For additional information concerning the outreach efforts undertaken by this employment unit, see the attached EEO Public File Reports.