

Extraordinary Circumstances

Mr. Frank Ellerker, the owner and sole operator of WXCK, is having to go through medical treatments and will be physically unable to operate the station, therefore he request to take the station silent till he is able to return to its daily operation.