

This amended is being file at the request of staff to adjust the language in the Security Agreement to clarify current FCC law that prohibits lender collateralization of FCC licenses.