

Farmville Seventh-day Adventist Church Community Radio Purpose and Objectives

Farmville Seventh-day Adventist Church is a community church that is recognized by the State of Virginia as a religious organization and a 501 (c) (3) organized and operated exclusively for humanitarian, education purposes.

As a local part of the greater, worldwide Seventh-day Adventist Church, the Farmville Seventh-day Adventist Church is committed to sharing the Advent hope in the Second Coming of Jesus, and serving the community through educating listeners in practical, holistic home, health, and heart education. We will focus on local and national programs that educate in the following areas:

1. To make our audiences aware of the Third Angel's Message of Revelation 14, and the Advent hope of the Second Coming of Jesus Christ. Instructing the listeners in the saving faith in Jesus Christ, and giving them hope in the midst of uncertain circumstances. Instructing the listeners to receive the gift of salvation through faith in Christ Jesus, and to be ready for his Second Coming, striving to live a life in harmony with Biblical instruction, and encouraging listeners to grow, spiritually, mentally, physically, and socially.
2. To educate the public on wholistic health which includes one's spirit, body and mind. Providing practical, profession, instruction in Biblical health, in order to raise the quality of living in the community, and promote happiness.
3. To serve as a venue for positive community news and activities.

4. To share inspiration, uplifting Advent Christian music.
