Section 3: Longer-Term Recruitment Initiatives Implemented During Previous Year

		The KUFM-FM/KUFM-TV Missoula station employment unit is located in a market with a population of fewer than 250,000 persons such that the station is required to complete two long-term initiatives every two years.
No.	Initiative	Description	Scope of Involvement	Personnel Involved
1	Hosted Job Fair	Expose college students to broadcasting environment and volunteer opportunities.	The University of Montana hosted Welcome Feast in September 2021. MTPR staffed a booth at the event. They passed out literature, gave out stickers, discussed public radio, and answered questions about volunteer job opportunities and procedures at MTPR. Hundreds of students stopped by the booth at the Welcome Feast.	Anne Hosler, MTPR Membership Manager; Michael Marsolek, MTPR Program Director Ray Ekness, MTPR/MTPBS GM
2	College Internship Program	Expose college students to broadcasting environment	MTPR and MTPBS participated in the University of Montana School of Journalism Job and Internship Fair held in March 2021. The staff interviewed prospective interns via Zoom during the	Ray Ekness, MTPR/MTPBS GM Anne Hosler, MTPR Membership Manager Corin Cates-Carney, MTPR News Director John Twiggs, MTPBS Producer day-long event. Two interns joined the MTPR staff for the summer of 2021. Students receive college credit and part-time pay.

3	Communications Courses Taught at UM by Broadcast Media Center Staff/Programs with Educational Institutions Relating to Broadcasting Careers	Outreach activity to inform the public of broadcasting opportunities at MTPR and MTPBS	John Twiggs, MontanaPBS producer, was an adjunct professor in the University of Montana School of Journalism during Spring Semester 2021. Twiggs taught the Intermediate Video Production course that concentrates on video photography, production, editing and storytelling.	John Twiggs, MTPBS Producer
4	Scholarship Program	Offer students an opportunity to receive financial assistance for tuition.	KUFM-FM and KUFM-TV participate in a scholarship program through the Montana Broadcasters Association and the Greater Montana Foundation to support students who want to pursue a career in Broadcasting. KUFM-FM and KUFM-TV also offer awards to outstanding University of Montana Journalism students who have shown a history of work with Montana Public Radio and MontanaPBS.	Ray Ekness, MTPR/MPTBS GM
