

On Sunday 10/17/21, Wonderama was rescheduled from its original time period of 6:30am in order to accommodate makegoods of network children's programming within that time period. It aired at 5am, which is not within the allowable airing window for the purposes of this report and therefore is not a qualified makegood.