

Environmental Statement

The applicant proposes to operate at 10 watts horizontally polarized at a height 21 meters. This proposal is well within the Commission's guidelines for both controlled and uncontrolled exposure. Furthermore, the site is located on a remote mountain ridge with controlled access. Placards warning of radiation hazard are posted around the site. Station staff are trained how to turn off the Vision Broadcasting transmitters in the event that anyone climbs the tower.